Fairy Glows

A fairy's glow changes depending on her mood. Here you can see some examples.

NORMAL
Lemon-yellow tinged glow

EMBARRASSED, ANGRY
Orange glow

FACT

A hazy glow is a fairy sickness that can be cured with this remedy:

1 sunflower seed, crushed
3 fireweed petals, grated
A sprinkle of goldenseal pollen

Mix sunflower and fireweed until well blended. Fold in goldenseal. Use as a scrub mornings and evenings for three days.

PROUD
Pink-edged glow

EXCITED
Glow flares

STARTLED
Glow winks out

Tinker Bell is feeling poorly. Give her some warm colours to cheer her up.

Chinese Dragons

In many countries people think dragons are scary, but in China they like them.

Boat Race Game

In China they even have boats that look like dragons. Play this fun game and see who can get to the finish line first!

How to Play

This is a game for 2 players. You'll need a marker for each player and a die. Decide who will play with odd numbers (1, 3, 5) and who will play with even numbers (2, 4, 6). Take it in turns to roll the die. If you roll one of your numbers, move forward one space. The player to reach the finish first wins the race!

A Symbol

The dragon usually symbolizes wisdom, power and good luck in China. Dragons are seen as caring and kind and thought to protect the innocent from evil spirits.

Tink's Workshop

Dragon Kite

Follow the steps below and learn how to make your own kite!

1

Carefully cut out the middle of a paper plate.

2

Turn the edge of the plate over and cover with glue..

3

Stick a sheet of tissue paper across. Trim around the plate when it is dry.

YOU WILL NEED:

- A GOLD PAPER PLATE
  (OR USE FELT-TIP PENS TO DECORATE ONE)
- A BLACK MARKER PEN
- TISSUE PAPER
- RED CELLOPHANE OR STREAMERS
- GREEN RIBBONS OR STREAMERS
- GLUE OR TAPE
- STRING
- SAFETY SCISSORS

5

Decorate with fiery red eyebrows, whiskers and a long beard. Red tissue paper would work just as well as streamers or cellophane..

4

Cut some horns out of red cellophane and stick them on. Then draw on your dragon's fierce face with a black pen. Don't forget the sharp teeth!

6

Turn your kite over and stick on a long green tail made of ribbons, streamers or paper.

7

Now make three evenly spaced holes, thread through some string and you are ready to catch the wind!

Hang your kite on the wall for decoration!

OH TINK, I MADE A TRAIL FOR THE SNAILS, BUT I THINK IT'S TOO HARD FOR THEM.

MAYBE I CAN HELP YOU!

TINK FLIES QUICKLY TO THE LAB, AND WHEN SHE COMES BACK...

JUST A FEW ADJUSTMENTS AND IT WILL BE READY.

THAT'S IT!
